Day 32 (Exodus 13-14)

CONSIDERING CONTENT

Why did God want them to go to such great lengths to commemorate the Exodus? What does this show us about our tendency to forget what God has done in and through our lives?

What was the purpose behind consecrating the firstborn? How does this help us understand that we are stewards of what we have and not owners?

We see the climax of the hardness and unrepentance of Pharaoh's heart as he pursues the Israelites. How does God receive glory, even in the rebellion, of this sinful man?

Why didn't God take them the shortest or easiest way out of the land? How does this encourage us when life seems unreasonable?

How do we see the hand and protection of God for his people in these chapters? How does this bring us comfort and peace?

APPLYING ACTION

What are some things that God has done in your life that you need to remember and praise Him for?

How will you consecrate what God has given you to steward? What is something you need to be giving to God and the work of His kingdom?

What is a way that God has protected you? What are some areas that you need to trust Him for His protection and provision?

Day 33 (Exodus 15-16)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

Why was singing and worshiping the right response after the deliverance from Pharaoh and his army?

What is part of the song that stood out to you and why?

From worshiping to grumbling. Why do the people go from worshiping to grumbling so quickly?

Were the needs that the Israelite people were grumbling about legitimate? When faced with their needs what should have been their response instead of grumbling?

Why do you think the Lord only allowed them to gather what they needed for the day? What was God teaching them?

APPLYING ACTION

Are you singing or grumbling? What areas of your life do you tend to grumble about? How can you turn that grumbling to singing?

How does your grumbling affect your Sunday morning worship experience? What do you need to do to engage God more in this time?

How has God and how is God providing for you?

In what ways do you have to, daily, depend on God for His provision? How are you responding to the provision?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

Day 34 (Exodus 17-18)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

Why do you think that the Israelites responded to their thirst the way they did? Why didn't they remember that God had provided for them before or if they did, why did it not change their response?

Why is it that the people asking "Is the Lord among us or not?" more than a simple question but an accusation against God?

As the Israelites faced their first battle how did God assure them that He was fighting for them?

What is significant about the alter built by Moses? What did Moses choose to commemorate? What did he choose not to commemorate?

Why was it vital that Moses set up a structure for serving the people? What would have eventually happened had he not?

APPLYING ACTION

In what ways have you made accusations against God and His provision for you in how you have responded to certain situations in your life?

How might you need to repent and change how you see certain aspects of your life?

What are some ways we tend to take credit for what God had done or is doing in our life? What area of your life do you need to give God glory for what he has done?

How well are you delegating your responsibilities? Do you feel the need to do everything yourself or are you putting things into the hands of "capable men" around you?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

Day 35 (Exodus 19-20)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

How is this Covenant that God is making in vs. 4-6 a covenant that is based on grace? Why is it important that we remember that even the law, that will soon be given, is an act of grace and love on the part of God?

Why do you think that God was so concerned that the people be "consecrated" when He was giving the Law to Moses? What does this show us about the importance of God's revelation to us?

How do the 10 Commandments reveal the character and nature of God? How can looking at the commands that way give us a different perspective of the 10 Commandments?

Why do you think God revisits the command not to make idols at the end of the chapter? What does this show us about the tendency of our hearts?

APPLYING ACTION

Why do you need to see the giving of the law as an act of grace? How does that affect your reading of Scripture? How does it affect how you seek to apply God's word to your life?

What Commandment speaks to you most of who God is? Why? What does it show you about our God?

What is something that is battling for the love and affection of your heart? How could that become an idol for you? What can you do to help keep God in the rightful place in your heart?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

Day 36 (Exodus 21-22)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

How are these laws an extension of the 10 Commandments?

What do we learn about how God values justice? How does this reflect who He is?

What do we learn about how God values human life over animal life?

Why is it significant that God has laws in regards to personal property? What does this teach us about stewardship?

APPLYING ACTION

What are some ways that you need to be more just?

How are you treating those around you? Do those that you manage or oversee feel that you value them and are treating them with all firmness?

How is justice tied to the character of God? Why does this help us appreciate the sacrifice of Jesus all the more?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

Day 37 (Exodus 23-24)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

What do these laws show us about how God views justice and mercy? How important are these things to God?

What do the Sabbath laws show us about the importance of building rest into our schedule and lives?

What do we learn about “the angel” in 23:20-23? (This is an Old Testament, preincarnate, appearance of Jesus.) What are we told in reference to Him?

How does this Old Covenant compare to the New Covenant? What are some main differences that stand out to you?

APPLYING ACTION

How well are you showing justice and mercy to those around you? What ways can you do this more completely?

Are you building rest and worship into your life? What needs to change?

Take some time and praise God for the New Covenant that we have in Jesus.
