

---

Day 37 (Exodus 23-24)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

What do these laws show us about how God views justice and mercy?
How important are these things to God?

What do the Sabbath laws show us about the importance of building rest into our schedule and lives?

What do we learn about “the angel” in 23:20-23? (This is an Old Testament, preincarnate, appearance of Jesus.) What are we told in reference to Him?

How does this Old Covenant compare to the New Covenant? What are some main differences that stand out to you?

APPLYING ACTION

How well are you showing justice and mercy to those around you?
What ways can you do this more completely?

Are you building rest and worship into your life? What needs to change?

Take some time and praise God for the New Covenant that we have in Jesus.

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

---

Day 38 (Exodus 25-26)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

Why do you think that God was so particular about how the Tabernacle was built?

Notice that the Tabernacle and its contents are more than just functional but also adorned quite beautifully. What does this show us about how we can worship God?

Check out Hebrews 8:5-6 & 9:11-14
What do we learn about Jesus in regards to the Tabernacle?

What does it show us about the importance of what Jesus did for us?

APPLYING ACTION

Take some time to praise God for the sending of His Son and the access to God that purchased for us.

What ways are you taking for granted that access you have to God?

What ways are you taking for granted the intimacy of your relationship to God that is available to you through Jesus?

What can you do this week to live into that access and relationship?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

---

Day 39 (Exodus 27-28)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

What is the significance of having the names of the tribes represented on the priest's garments? What does this show us about their responsibilities?

We are told that Jesus is our High Priest. How are we comforted know our names are engraved and worn over His heart as He intercedes on our behalf?

What do you think the significance is that the priest wore a plate that was engraved with "Holy to the Lord" on it? What do we learn about the necessity of being wholly set apart to God?

APPLYING ACTION

What does it look like to be wholly devoted to God?

In what ways do you need to set your life more fully apart to God?

In what ways has God gifted you to create? How are you using those abilities for Christ and His kingdom?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

---

Day 40 (Exodus 29-30)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

With the amount and variety of burnt sacrifices happening what do you think would have been the smells of the Tabernacle?

What would the smell of fire and burning flesh remind the people about the seriousness and consequence of their sin?

Why such severity when it comes to following the commands about how these articles are to be built and used?

What does that show us about the importance of how we worship God?

APPLYING ACTION

In what ways do sin today still bring death and destruction?

What is an area of your life that you need to sacrifice to God? How will this help bring peace and relationship instead of destruction and death?

When it comes to how you are worshiping God are you more concerned with what He desires from us or how the church is catering to what you desire?

How can you engage more deeply in worship of God this week?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

---

Day 41 (Exodus 31)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

How do we see the creativeness of God come out in this chapter?

What do we learn about God's desire to have things done with beautifully and artistically?

What is the intent behind the giving of the Sabbath? Who was it specifically given to?

APPLYING ACTION

In what ways do we see Christians using their creativity to honor and worship God?

In what ways can you use your talents for the Kingdom of God?

What are some ways you can encourage a Christian you know to use their creativity for Jesus?

How does this honor God and His creativity?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

---

Day 42 (Exodus 32-33)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

In what ways did the people think they were worshiping the true God?

What does this show us about the importance of worshiping in a way that is prescribed by God?

What happens when we decide to do what we want instead of what God has asked?

What do we learn about God and His prerogative to enact judgment? What ways did he judge the sin of these people?

APPLYING ACTION

What are some ways our culture seeks to "worship" God in a way that he does not condone?

What is our guide for worship? What can we look to know what God desires of us?

Are you looking to Scripture to show you how to worship or are you following something or someone else?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

---

Day 43 (Exodus 34-36:7)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

How do we see the Gospel in 34:5-7?

How is this revelation of the character of God different than the gods of the people in the land that the Israelites would encounter?

How do we see God's desire for "face to face" relationship in these verses?

How do we see God utilizing craftsmen and artisans in His worship? What does this show us about God and how He wants to be worshiped?

APPLYING ACTION

Why is it important that we see the Gospel carry throughout the entirety of the Bible?

What does your "face to face" time with God look like? What needs to happen to see intimacy grow in your relationship?

How are you using your artistic gifts or encouraging others to use their gifts in the service and worship of our God? How might you be able to do this better?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

---

Day 44 (Exodus 36:8-37)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

Considering these specifications were already given in ch. 25-31 what do you think God is communicating by including them again?

We see that the people built it exactly as God specified. What does that show us about the importance of living obediently?

Why is it vital that we are careful to keep God as the authority in our life of how we live and worship?

APPLYING ACTION

What is an area of your life that you have not kept under the authority of God? How can you fix that? What needs to happen today to make things right with God?

What are some other things that might be acting as an authority in your life? Maybe it's the influence of family, friends or culture.

How can we correct our thinking and allow God to more completely be our authority?

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

---

Day 45 (Exodus 38-39)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

We start to get an idea of the cost involved in building the Tabernacle 38:21-31.

How does this demonstrate for us the truth that “where your treasure, there your heart will be also”?

We see again that the priests have the names of the tribes inscribed on the Ephod they wore when they ministered before God. What does this symbolize for us?

What is the New Testament connection for us?

APPLYING ACTION

Where is your treasure being spent? What does your pocket book reveal about your heart?

Are you utilizing it in a way that honors God? What can be done in order to honor God more fully with your finances?

Jesus, our high priest, intercedes for us before God. How does this bring joy and comfort to you?

What is happening in your life that you need Jesus’ intercession? Praise him that He is interceding for you right now.

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?

---

Day 46 (Exodus 40)

---

CONSIDERING CONTENT

The work had been done and God tasked Moses to go about the final assembly and set up of the Tabernacle. Why do you think that God had Moses do this himself?

What does this show us about what God had called Moses to and the ministry he was to fulfill before the people?

After Moses had obediently assembled the Tabernacle, the glory of God fell in such a way they could not even enter. Why don’t we see manifestations of God’s glory like this today?

We no longer have a physical tabernacle but God says that we are the Tabernacle. What does this old tabernacle demonstrate about what is true about us?

Why is the indwelling of God in us better than an outward physical manifestation of his glory like we see here?

APPLYING ACTION

What has God called you to? Are you being obedient to that call?

What ways are you aware of the filling of God in your life?

What do you need to do to help remember that you are the Tabernacle of God and He is living powerfully in you?

You did it!! You finished Exodus!! Give yourself a high five. From the burning bush and the parting of the Red Sea to the giving of the Law and crazy intricate plans for the Tabernacle and God’s glory descending.... You did it!!

What idea, verse, or phrase can change my experience today?